REALIZATION WINNERS.

The success of The Parader in the Lawrence Realization was the inspiration for the following readable history of the great race from the pen of an eastern writer:

"The Parader's victory over Commando in the Realization was a surprise, as many of the victories in this classic event have been. It was not even as close a race as has been the case in former years, for Commando could not keep pace with The Parader after he once caught him in the stretch.

"The inaugural Realization was run in 1889, when the great Salvator beat Tenny a head in one of the grandest struggles ever witnessed on a race track. Favorite, at 9 to 5, was Mr. Haggin's Salvator, who had lost the first Futurity to Precator Knott in the preceding year. Salvator was ridden by the redoubtable McLaughlin at 122 pounds, and the trainer had so improved the colt's condition over that of Tidal day that the champion of the 'orange, blue sleeves and cap,' stripped in much finer shape than even on the former victorious occasion.

"The peculiar conditions of the Realization seemed almost revolutionary, however, when D. T. Pulsifer's flying colt, Tenny, could 'get in' at only 109 pounds. The representative of the 'red and white stripes, blue sash,' had achieved the easiest of victories in Brooklyn's Fort Hamilton Handicap and Sheephead's Volunteer Handicap, carrying 112 and 104 pounds on the respective occasions, and his partisans indignantly scouted the idea that any three-year-old on earth could concede him thirteen pounds, as Salvator was required to do by the Realization conditions. Tenny, ridden by F. Littlefield, was at 13 to 5, while it was 18 to 5 against the Dwyers' Longstreet carrying 112 pounds and ridden by Taylor.

"The Dwyer colt was always prominent until the final quarter, at which point McLaughlin, bringing Salvator up next to the rail, at once took the lead. (Riding in his most brilliant manner, McLaughlin then lost no time in making his way home, and his wonderful skill was rewarded by a nose victory for Salvator over Tenny, who came with a great rush on the outside. The incident started the memorable Salvator-Tenny dispute of 1889-90, which was never fully abated, not even by their match as four-year-olds, until Salvator 'lost' Tenny in the Champion of 1890.

"Whatever excitement and disputation may have characterized the finishing scenes of the first Realization these were notably lacking as far as the second winner was concerned, for Senator George [Hearst's] Tournament won by fifty yards or more in 1890. The only excitement of the event [pertained] to the struggle for second honors [between] Mr. Belmont's Her Highness and Mr. Scott's Banquet, the former 'landing' by a head. Bulwarks of the turf were the owners of the first three in that renewal, and their subsequent deaths all in rapid succession were a genuine loss to our branch of the 'sport of kings.'

"Mr. Belmont's untimely taking off was particularly accentuated by the Realization of 1891, for [the] victor was the Nursery-bred colt Potomac, which had won the previous year's Futurity [for the 'maroon and scarlet.' With the dispersal of the Belmont stable Potomac was purchased by M. F. Dwyer for $25,000.

"G. B. Morris' Strathmeath was the Realization favorite by dint of having already won the American Derby at Chicago, but Potomac's most dangerous opposition developed in Mr. Marcus Daly's Montana.

"Although suffering from his splithoof, which gave way early in the struggle, Potomac ran his race out with superlative gameness. It was again a nose verdict, however, but the victory of the Nursery champion would almost certainly have been effected by a larger margin had not his jockey been well nigh caught napping after thinking the race at his mercy.

"Another great colt inscribed his name upon the Realization roll in 1892, for Mr. Marcus Daly's Tammany was genuinely first-class, and it was a pity that his jockey's poor work in the preceding Tidal Stakes should have prevented the colt from being absolutely unbeaten in 1892 and 1893. His Realization was a grand race, grandly won, and Tammany's subsequent Lorrillard and Jerome as a three-year-old were followed by his four-year-old conquests in Brooklyn's Second Special and the Lamplighter Special at Guttenburg.

"Great dissatisfaction prevailed over the Realization of 1893, for the jockey on J. R. & F. P. Keene's St. Leonards gave a shocking exhibition and the colt's head defeat by Brown & Rogers' Daily America (then known as the Troubadour-Sunbeam colt) was a thorough paced fluke. St. Leonards was probably as unlucky a horse as ever lived, for his previous American Derby defeat by Boundless was proven to have been equally fluky by the fact that Boundless finished many lengths in St. Leonards' wake on Realization day.

"The Realization of 1894 duplicated Tammany's clean-cut victory for the best colt, Mr. Croker's Dobbins was an 8 to 5 favorite, while it was 14 to 5 against 'lucky' Baldwin's Rey el Santa Anita and 16 to 5 against Mr. Marcus Daly's Senator Grady. Whatever he might have been able to do with these colts as juveniles, the little 'Senator' was now hopelessly outclassed, and Mr. Croker's gallant colt won in easy style by two lengths from the Keene candidate, Hornpipe.

"Mr. Croker subsequently purchased Rey el Santa Anita to accompany Dobbins on his English sojourn, where the horse won under the name of Santa Anita. Dobbins never started abroad, however, but has sired a number of winning sons and daughters.

"Probably the least meritorious of all Realization victors was Bright Phoebus, who won in 1895 for Mr. W. S. Hobart, after being purchased for the service of the 'red, yellow Maltese crosses and cap' on the very eve of the race. Keenan, who was second, subsequently earned international 'rogue honors' in England and India.

"The Realization of 1896 witnessed the first duplication of Potomac's feat in securing the 'double event' of the Futurity at two and the Realization at three. Requit had won the Futurity in 1895 in David Gideon's 'dark blue,' but had in the interim been purchased for the service of the 'green, red sleeves and cap' of Colonel W. P. Thompson, who had gone in for racing with great enthusiasm as the purchaser of the late Mr. D. D. Withers' Brookdale farm, where Requit first saw the light of day.

"Requit's most dangerous Realization opponents were considered to be Mr. Belmont's Hastings and Merry Prince, of which the former was also a juvenile purchase out of Mr. Gideon's establishment. The Realization running resulted in a most signal victory for Requit, however, who won without any apparent effort, while second honors were secured by Peep o' Day, the imported son of Ayrshire and Sundown, who had been bred by the Messrs. Keene.

"The Belmont winner, Scottish Chieftain, was the Realization favorite in 1897, with Rensselaer second choice, but the contest was won by the Messrs. Morris' imported colt, The Friar, who carried the 'all scarlet jacket' to the front in the first stride, and was never afterward headed. The Friar subsequently demonstrated his quality by winning the inaugural running of the $5,000 Brighton Cup. Rensselaer, on the other hand, has since raced abroad, where Belgium's Grand Prix d'Ostende of 1900 has been among his important successes.

"The $41,000 Hamburg was an even-money favorite for the Realization of 1898. After the close of an active two-year-old campaign in the colors of J. E. Madden, Hamburg had been purchased at the above-mentioned figure for service in the colors of Mr. Marcus Daly. After experiencing a defeat in his inaugural appearance in his new colors for the Belmont at Morris Park, Hamburg had simply 'squandered' his opponents in his subsequent races, and the Realization was a brilliant repetition of his favorite 'spreading' tactics.

"Two lengths at the half, four lengths at the mile, six lengths at the mile and a half—thus runs the story of his lead during the race, and Hamburg was eased to a walk in order to allow his nearest competitor to finish only two lengths in his wake.

"Hamburg's next and last public appearance was in the Brighton Cup, out of which he scared every likely opponent. Only old Howard Mann had the temerity to face Hamburg and his stable companion, Ogden, on the eventful day, and Hamburg won by almost the length of the stretch' from Ogden, who had an easy task to appropriate second money.

"Hon. Perry Belmont's 'maroon, scarlet hoops and cap,' scored an easy Realization victory in 1899, when borne by Ethelbert. If Hamburg's success was impressive, what shall be said for Ethelbert's? The son of Eothen simply galloped in front all the journey, and, drawing further and further away in the final stages, won in a 'hack canter' by ten lengths.

"No such easy victory marked Prince of Melbourne's success of last year, for the finish witnessed a heart-breaking struggle between 'the Prince' and H. Eugene Leigh's Ildrim, and the former's triumph for the late Mr. Beard's 'black, vermilion sleeves and cap' was equally as great a triumph for jockey Spencer as for the colt. Prince of Melbourne was a great horse about that time, however, and wound up the season's work by capturing the Nautilus and Seagate at Brighton."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Samuel C. Wagner made the following statement last night: "In regard to the dispatch from St. Louis concerning Louis Thompson and the Washington Park Club I have this to say: Louis Thompson has complied with every rule of the Western Jockey Club and has never been disqualified. He raced some of his horses at St. Louis but they were engaged in stakes there, and in permitting him to race at Washington Park that association has not deviated from the Western Jockey Club rules in any particular. The statement made this morning in a local sporting paper was erroneous and misleading, and I wish to place both the Washington Park Club and Louis Thompson correctly before the public. Thompson was temporarily suspended at St. Louis, but not ruled off, and restored to good standing in short order after an investigation.

Says a St. Louis scribe concerning two colts being raced in that city: "When you regard the running of the two good three-year-olds, Maximus and Wall, you cannot help wondering how it is that Wall is a medium of speculation, while Maximus is barred in the betting. If there is a bad betting proposition on the track, it is Wall. Mr. Darden never starts him save where he can win, and he is always trying. Wall has run just one kind race this season. All his other races have been sulky ones. He is

TWO RACES FOR DUNNE.

Pat Dunne, the popular horseman, was very much in evidence yesterday at Washington Park, double shooting the game with Admonition and Toah. The first named took the day's opener in an easy manner, leading by a short margin up to the final straightaway, where he came away in a bound and won almost as he pleased by three lengths from Reesda, who beat Henry Burt one for second place. The much drummed Boney Boy ran in second position until in the final quarter, where he appeared to have a fine chance, but died away in the last eighth, finishing a poor fifth. Canmore, the California crack colt, ran a dull race, but had little chance after his cut off at the club house turn, being compelled to swing very wide, losing some lengths. He moved up onto his field after that and had a fair position at the stretch entry, but made no headway from there on, finishing a poor fourth. There was a hot tip out on Dissenter, but he never was a contender at any part of the race.

Toah, the second winner for Dunne, ran a fine race in the fourth, a six furlongs dash. Emma R. led by a good margin to the final eighth, where she tired, and Toah, who had always been close up, darted into the lead, holding it to the end and winning easily by two lengths from Fleuron, who came with a rush in the last fifty yards and nipped Sim W. on the post by a head for second place. Minyon, on whom many depended to take the race, tired and quit badly when the pinch came, finishing a poor sixth. Maggie Davis ran a fair race, but quit a little in the last sixteenth.

Nellie Waddell was in great fettle yesterday, having no trouble whatever in taking the youngster race, the second, a dash of five furlongs. Off well, she dashed to the front and remained there to the end, winning easily by two lengths from Helen Print, who finished a length and a half before Julia Junkin. Magi was supposed to be the good thing but was in a fretful mood and hardly in a condition to race at her best. She put up a dull performance. Rosewar on which Bullman had the mount was virtually left at the post. Golden Glitter ran a fair race.

The long distance race was taken by Schorr's Tammany Chief, who under punishment after the first six furlongs had been run, stuck to his work and finally won by a length from Frangible who beat the fast closing Waldeck a half length for second place. Anthracite for a spell appeared as if she was going to run away with the purse, but she faltered in the final eighth and was pretty well exhausted by the time the line had been reached. Knightbanneret was a keen contender up to a sixteenth out, but tired in the closing strides.

The Four Hundred captured the last race in rather an easy manner coming with a rush in the last sixteenth and fairly romping away from his field. He was by far the best. J. V. Kirby made his move at the right time but was unable to overtake the winner. Red Hook showed improvement over his previous races and is due for a bracket. Lapidus was rank for four and a half furlongs and then faded away.

Fifteen thousand persons were present and witnessed a good day's sport.

Abe Frank is carded to start in the Edgewater Stakes this afternoon and curiosity will be rife concerning the way he will perform after his escapade of last week. The card is very taking, a handicap at a mile and an eighth promising a high class race.

It presents several of the horses that ran so brilliantly in the Young Handicap, besides some speedy ones that were not engaged in that race.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

a good horse when right, and always well backed at a short price. Time after time he throws down his backers and destroys betting on the race. Those who know he can win fear he will not run, and yet they fear to bet on anything else, knowing Wall can beat the other one if he does make up his mind to try.

"Maximus ran a few inconsistent, or rather, sour races, in the spring, when he was not in condition. The judges ordered him barred in the betting. Since his disqualification he has not run a single bad race. He is the most consistent horse at the track, and probably the best three-year-old at it over a distance of ground."

A dispatch from Buffalo to the New York Sun of Sunday says: "Negotiations are pending for the transfer of the interests of John Hood and Attorney German of Welland, Ont., in the Fort Erie race track. They value their share at $23,000, although it represents notes that are considered worthless. These notes were made when liens were foreclosed on the old Fort Erie Jockey Club, the original owner of the track. Ever since the opening of the present long season Hood and German have tried to get their money back. Mr. German, who represents his district in parliament, has evolved a scheme, it is said, which has brought the opponents to terms. The license privilege to sell liquor on the tracks is an important one, and without it, it is said, the track could not exist. It is said that Mr. German has succeeded in preventing the issuing of a license this year, and because liquors have been sold there Hood and German are in a position, it is believed, to seize the entire outfit unless suitable terms are made."

Barney Schreiber's Sain, two-year-olds Otis, Schwalbe, Father Wentker, Dewey, Trauer and Picquart, have all been sick since their arrival in the east. Forte, the great stretch runner, whose dashing finishes so won him favor at the Fair Grounds, is also on the hospital list. Just at present the master of Woodlands has no horse fit to win for him. He is resting up Satchel and others for the fall campaign. By the way, Mr. Schreiber has Bannockburn in work again and hopes to get him fit for the fall racing. The big son of Hayden Edwards—probably the finest-looking thoroughbred that ever started—has been bred to a few choice mares this season. Mr. Schreiber expects a lot of him at the stud. Sain has had practically all the good Woodlands mares, but Mr. Schreiber thought so well of Bannockburn that he saved him a few matrons. Foul Shot and Balgown were bred to the culls, but that does not mean that Balgown may not get another Sotola.

Clay & Woodford, of Runnymede stud, who recently lost by death their great sire Hindoo, have purchased in England the racehorses Bridgewater and St. Evox for a large price. The former is now at McGrathiana Stud and St. Evox is yet to be shipped. St. Evox is a bay horse 6 years old, by St. Simon—Saltire, by Ben D'Or. Both horses are closely related to good winners in England.

The leading winning owners at the recent meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club are as follows:

| Owner.             | Amt.     | Owner.               | Amt.    |
|--------------------|----------|----------------------|---------|
| J. E. Madden       | $21,750 | A. Featherstone      | $5,268 |
| R. T. Wilson Jr.   | 13,750   | T. Hitchcock Jr.     | 4,495   |
| J. Fleischmann     | 13,365   | F. C. M. Lewee & Co. | 4,240   |

| W. C. Whitney      | 6,205    | Frank Farrell        | 3,970   |

American nominations to the Stewards Cup at Goodwood, one of the most coveted events of the meeting, although it is only a six furlongs sprint, are: W. C. Whitney's Prince Charles II., 3; Elizabeth M., 3; Watershed, 3, and Spectrum, 5; F. Keene's Olympian, 3, and Noonday II., 3; J. R. Keene's Disguise II., 4, and Chacornac, 4; E. Winner—Blk. c, by Hanover—Kelp.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Admonition was in front all the way to the stretch by a short margin and then left his field as he pleased. Reseda finished strongly. Henry Burt was tiring in the last eighth. Canmore had to take the overland route at the first turn, moved up into his field when going down the backstretch but tired in the last quarter. Boney Boy's chances looked rosy in the stretch turn, but he fell away thereafter. Irish Jewel ran well for six furlongs. He shows best in soft going. Barbara M. showed a little early speed.
Scratched—26721 The Unknown, 117.
Overweights—Henry Burt, 2 to 1. Henry Burt, show, 2 to 1. Canmore, show, 11 to 20.

Winner—Ch. f, by Rossington—Semper Idem.
Went to post at 2:32. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Lacrimae, off in front, had clear sailing and was never in trouble. Sister Sarah began slowly but finished fast and strongly. She prefers a longer route. Sting finished stoutly. Audiphone was coming like a wild horse through the stretch when he swerved clear across the track. Kegel showed unexpected speed. Bandrol ran a bad race.
Scratched—26593 Monte Himyar, 106; 26713 Colonel Stone, 96; 26153 Colonel Flynn, 94.
Overweights—Virginian, 2 pounds.
Lacrimae, show, 1 to 2. Sister Sarah, show, out. Sting, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. f, by Tenny—Ma Belle.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won handily; second easily. Tenny Belle outclassed her field and was cleverly ridden. Echo Dale, under a good rider, held on well. Mrs. Grannan finished stoutly. Sweet Dream ran a bad-looking race. She showed none of her usual early speed, but came through the stretch like a wild horse.
Scratched—26678 Robert Jr., 114; 26678 Golden Harvest, 101; 26641 May Do, 96.
Tenny Belle, show, out. Echo Dale, show, 2 to 1. Mrs. Grannan, show, evens.

Time, 3:17.

Winner—B. g. by Charaxus—Young Grace.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Chara-grace, the crack steeplechaser of last season, outclassed his field today over the hurdles and is in great form. When apparently beaten on the backstretch he suddenly commenced to move up. Passe Partout assumed what seemed a sure winning lead at the half but was unable to with-stand the winner's tremendous burst of speed at the end. Monroe Doctrine put up a fine race. Cephalalgia nearly fell at the third jump and lacked speed thereafter. Klondyke and Orman ran fairly well. Draughtman must have mud to show his best form.

Scratched—26126 Mystic Shrine, 155; 26732 Magic Light, 144; 26732 Bosphorus, 141; 26424 Sem-per Ira, 141.

Charagrace, show, 1 to 2. Passe Partout, show, 3 to 5. Monroe Doctrine, show, 8 to 5. Cephalalgia, show, 3 to 5. Draughtman, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. g. by Montana—Lola A.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bon-ner broke running and outclassed his field. He was extended at the end, however, to stall off Lieschen's determined rush. The latter ran a remarkably speedy and game race, showing great improvement. Star of the West, off poorly and carried wide, closed a big gap and must be a good filly. She was very badly handled. Graciosity displayed good speed, but had no chance in such incompetent hands.

Scratched—26637 Essene, 103; 26702 Notimah, 103; Driftwood II, 103; 26343 Lady Mag, 103; 24608 Lombre, 103.

Overweights—Joy Maker, 1 pound; Singing Nymph, 3.
Lieschen, show, 3 to 5. Star of the West, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Star Ruby—Harmony II.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ani-mosity was the best at the weights, made her own running and came away in the stretch when challenged by the fast coming Nitrate, who ran an improved race. Hammock had little chance with the bad ride given him and was running very easily almost throughout. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—26670 Magnificent, 116; 26731 Ethics, 94.

Overweights—Thicket, 3 pounds.

No show betting on first three.

26753 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 24, 48, 1:14, 1:40, 1:53, 1:56.

Winner—B. h. by Deceiver—Maudlin.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. Decater closed with a tremendous rush at the end, but was very lucky to score, as Scurry was a phenomenally speedy colt today, and had he been waited with patiently before heading a light weighted sprinter like St. Finnan in the first half he could hardly have lost. Vitellins ran a game race at the weights. Humboldt wants a cup distance and was going very strongly at the end. St. Finnan ran a fast and game race and evidently favors light weight in a pronounced degree. Belvino is not good enough to beat this kind. Belle of Troy showed speed, but quit in the last half and is out of form.

Scratched—(26731) Caruncle, 120; 26354 Trigger, 110; 26735 Baron Pepper, 110.

Overweights—St. Finnan, 2 pounds.

Decater, show, 1 to 4. Scurry, show, 3 to 2. Vitellins, show, 7 to 10.

Time, 11, 23, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:07, 1:10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Hanover—Aquila.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Lady Sterling was cleverly handled, ran a good race and is game and a stayer. Ben Howard was easily best. Off poorly and badly handled, carried wide and swerving and bumped in the stretch, he is a pretty good colt and can beat this kind. Oclawaha displayed speed and gameness in a marked degree. Honolulu, in close quarters for the first half, finished well. Locket closed a gap. Man o'War was used up in setting a fast past. Red Damsel and O'Hagen were out of place.

Scratched—26464 Lady Hollywood, 105.

Corrected weights—Honolulu, 106.

Overweights—Locket, 2 pounds; Red Damsel, 1; Geraldyn, 3.

Lady Sterling, show, 1 to 2. Ben Howard, show, 3 to 1. Oclawaha, show, 2 to 1. O'Hagen, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bathampton—Sadie.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Sad-ducee outclassed the field at the weights and at that he is not the speedy horse that he was last spring and cannot beat good ones. Bobs put up an extra fast and game race for him, especially in view of his forcing the winner almost to the limit throughout. Royal Sterling closed a gap and was going strongly at the end. Military appeared sure of second money at the stretch turn, but failed to stick in the last furlong. Woodspike showed a good burst of speed for a half.

Scratched—26549 Mayor Gilroy, 107; 26640 Hengist, 100; (26640) Ondurdis, 100; 26666 Ashes, 95; 26665 Twig, 95; 26640 Ante Up, 95; 26625 Mareta, 90.

Bobs, show, 8 to 5. Royal Sterling, show, 6 to 5. Military, show, out.
